

Evanda Henry was appointed to the Diversity Commission in 2018. She moved to Forest Park in 2017 after going up in the melting pots of New York and New Jersey. She loves how welcoming the people of Forest Park have been to her and hopes to show and share that quality for all Forest Park residents. She is an advocate for equal opportunities and appreciating the differences that we all bring to our community. She enjoys traveling, eating, dance, and storytelling to better understand different cultures and be open-minded to the many ways we experience life.
