News you can use

Summerfest 2006!

Mark your calendar now and be sure to mosey on down to Madison Street on June 9th and June 10. You are sure to have a wonderful time perusing the sidewalk sales, sampling some great food, and enjoying the terrific musical venues the Forest Park Chamber of Commerce has arranged this year.

Memorial Day Services

Forest Park has two memorial day services planned. The first is being hosted by Woodlawn Cemetery at 1:00 p.m. with guest speakers scheduled. The service is held on the southern end of the cemetery just adjacent to the office. The second service is being hosted by the VFW and being held at the Park District of Forest Park at 2:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome at both events.

Oh la la...the French Market is back!

The Forest Park French Market has returned better than ever! We've moved the market to much more visible location and it can now be found at the n/w corner of Circle and Madison every Saturday through October, 2006. This unique open air market boasts fresh baked goods, produce, flowers, jewelry, crafts, and much more.

Don't be shy, come on by!

"Get your groove on at this season's "Groovin' in the Grove"

June 20th.....Spak!...designers and architects by day...rockers by night featuring street corner blues, pop, old-time rock and lead vocals by Forest Park's own Sharon Dusek.

July 18th.....The Bluz Brothers...dedicated to those great R&B and party tunes made popular by Jake & Elwood Blues of Calumet City. It's their mission to carry on the tradition until the BOYS make parole.

August 15th.....Parrothead Express...blends the music of Jimmy Buffet, the tropical sounds of Calypso, Rhythms of Reggae and beach party music...just add water.

Concerts held at the Forest Park Picnic Grove, 7820 Madison Street, 7PM to 10PM at no cost. Popcorn, nachos and beverages (soft drinks, beer, wine and concert special of the month) available.
