

Kyle Castelo moved to Forest Park – after previously living in Atlanta, Georgia – in 2014 to attend law school. Kyle grew up in Southern California and has always enjoyed living in culturally diverse communities. As a commissioner of the Forest Park Diversity Commission, Kyle hopes to utilize his experience to help build a more inclusive and dynamic Village.