

Naoto Hasegawa was appointed to the Diversity Commission in 2017. Born in Japan and raised in the State of Hawaii, Hasegawa hopes to leverage his unique upbringing to promote open dialogue amongst the residents of Forest Park to build an inclusive community. He has lived in Forest Park for the last seven years with his wife, Kimberly, and their cat, Presley.

(Authored by N. Hasegawa)