

Tom Holmes is a retired pastor who has lived and worked in Forest Park since 1982. He has worked in multicultural settings his whole life. He studied at Tuskegee Institute as an exchange student, taught in Puerto Rico, led a racially diverse congregation and is now a member of St. Paul Thai Lutheran Church on Dixon St. He writes part time for the Forest Park Review.

(Authored by T. Holmes)